As fate would have it, the judge is going to be on vacation on this trial date. We had to move this case yet again. It is now scheduled for May 4, 2011. I am assuming Kate will still be [REDACTED]. Can you read the graphs from the GCMS (sorry this layman's terms here) and form your own opinion that the substance was cocaine?

Thanks,
Jim

Oh good gracious! It's too bad we shredded the copies of the data for this case. Guess will have to compile it again. If by chance it gets continued, just a heads up that Kate is [REDACTED]

Hung jury on the first trial, there was a bench trial on the second trial where he stipulated to the drug certs (that was a NG) and now we are trying the conspiracy charge. And you probably thought you had seen the end of Mr. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] The fun rages on!

Hi Jim. I just got a summons for Commonwealth v. [REDACTED] on March 3rd. Now I know we already testified to this case back in October so I'm afraid to ask but what's up?
